

UPPER DARBY JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
UPPER DARBY SCHOOL DISTRICT
UPPER DARBY, PENNSYLVANIA

David Curry for his Scholarship Body

UPPER DARBY JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
UPPER DARBY, PENNSYLVANIA

2/15/55

To Whom It May Concern —

David W. Curry is an excellent student and a young gentleman! He is near the very top of his class, certainly in the upper one-third.

Respectfully,

Blaine James Jr.
Judana Counselor
7th grade.

Scholarship Merit Badge

Requirement No. 3.

- a. When I was passing my First class requirements astronomy was a help toⁱⁿ directions.
- b. The training I received in wood shop came in handy this winter when I built a bird feeding station.
- c. English class has helped me many times to write a letter in correct form.
- d. Mathematics has helped me in keeping an expense account and in figuring the bill for my paper route.
- e. Art has helped me in the First class requirement of map sketching and in drawing portraits and automobiles.

Requirement No. 4.

- a. I go to Sellars Library for books to help me in reports and to find out more about my hobbies.
- b. I have learned many things from watching television programs such as Mr. Wizard, You Are There, You Bet Your Life.
- c. From my chemistry set I have learned things about chemicals and their formulas, chemical reactions, elements and many other things.
- d. From scouting I have learned some dramatics by putting on skits, I have learned first aid, and how to camp.
- e. From reading magazines and newspapers I have learned about other countrys, about stars, and about famous paintings.

Anonimink # 2
David Curry

Fire fighting equipment around the home

brooms

hoses

sand

buckets

baking soda

Fire hazards around the home

kerosene in lantern

oily rags

loose cords

overloaded outlets

chimney not inspected

To whom it may concern:

David Curry gave a very well prepared talk on Camping in Town to a group of about seventy people. His talk was delivered in a clear interesting voice and lasted more than five minutes.

AS Roberts
3/30/55